

Path to Positive Communities Climate Ambassador Pledge

As a Path to Positive Ambassador, I pledge to help people understand the links between climate and our community, the spectrum and benefits of climate solutions, and opportunities to act, participate and advocate. I am empowered to inspire my community, colleagues, the public, and policymakers on climate solutions that help protect our families and communities now, and ensure a prosperous, just, and secure future.

As a Path to Positive Ambassador, I will:

- Take and report 5 or more Climate Ambassador actions per year. Examples:
 - Facilitate a conversation or give a presentation (community gatherings, lunch and learn, book club, conference session, etc.)
 - Submit an Op Ed (Opposite the Editorial page) or LTE (Letter to the Editor) to a newspaper or periodical of record;
 - Publish a blog post or thought piece encouraging my community to act on climate solutions;
 - Attend a local, state, or national candidate forum to raise climate action as a priority;
 - Participate in advocacy actions like rallies or other climate action events that arise in my state, city, and profession, or contacting elected officials.
- Be added to the private, online Mobilize platform and receive communications from ecoAmerica. Learn more about Mobilize here.
- Be listed on the Blessed Tomorrow website and my affiliated organization's website by name, title, affiliation(s), city, state.
- As much as I am able, prioritize voting in primary and general elections at all levels of government, and help others register to vote and get to the polls on election day.
- Ensure all actions taken as an Ambassador are conducted voluntarily and offer any Path to Positive presentations free of charge to audiences.

To help facilitate Ambassador action opportunities, Path to Positive will:

- Provide the slides from the training, and a customizable version of the Path to Positive Ambassador Training, inclusive of talking points and citations, for me to use in presentations, along with other supplemental resources and handouts.
- Host regular calls for all the Path to Positive Ambassadors.
- Invite you into a private online community of sharing and collaboration and resources to take action.
- Provide program updates via email and newsletter.
- Send me prospective opportunities to take action in my local community, and opportunities to present from interest expressed via the Path to Positive and partners websites.
